

MARKS DISTRIBUTION

The details of marks distribution for online evaluation applicable for all the theory subjects are as under:

Components	Description	Max. marks
Assignments	Minimum one assignment to be given from each unit. Assignment given in the institute before lockdown may also be considered. It should be ensured that assignments must cover all the topics from the unit and consist of numerical/design questions.	25
Oral Examination	TWO viva-voce should be conducted over phone/skype asking questions between 5-10 minutes. FIRST from 50% syllabus and SECOND from remaining 50%.	10*2=20
Online Test (Type-I)	MCQ, fill in the blank, short answer type, etc. questions will be set and the tests will be conducted through any online platform. TWO such test of 15-20 minutes duration will be conducted. FIRST test from 50% syllabus and SECOND from remaining 50%.	10*2=20
Online Test (Type-II)	Essay type or long answer type, numerical type (if applicable) questions may be set and may be conducted by sending through any online platform. One such test of 60- 120 minutes duration may be conducted from whole syllabus. Students will send their solutions/ answer after completing the test through any online mode.	25
Report	Report on a topic from each course which may include recent technology or advancements/major learning points. The report should have minimum 500 words. Student have to choose the topics from that course only in consultation with course coordinators and will send it to course teacher. (for better coordination the course coordinator can assign the topics to students based on their ability)	10